1. China informed Hungary [ ] that it cannot accept further shipments of penicillin under the Chinese-Hungarian trade agreement of 30 April 1954. The reason given was the poor quality of Hungarian penicillin. It was specifically stated that the Hungarian penicillin received by China was inferior to Czechoslovak and East German preparations. 25X1
2. The Chinese further stated that the packaging of Hungarian goods was poor and that 27 percent of the telephone equipment had arrived broken.
